REAL TOBACCO MONOPOLY HERE

YANKIES ASK FRANCE TO LOAN
THEM MONEY TO START A
TOBACCO MONOPOLY IN THAT COUNTRY

By the Associated Press

PARIS, Feb. 11.—Proposals by four great associations of tobacco growers in the United States for an immediate loan of sixty billion francs, in return for a concession involving a tobacco monopoly in France were made several months ago, but were rejected by Louis Klotz then minister of finance, according to The Journal.

In applying the proposed grant, the newspaper has learned, it asserts, that the proposition has been renewed since Francois-Marcel assumed the country's portfolio of finance.

Government experts estimate the profit from the sale of tobacco in France about five hundred billion francs. A match monopoly, it is declared, would never be a paying venture because matches are manufactured in this country.

The Journal says Hugh C. Wallace, American ambassador, made unofficial representations to the French government endorsing the monopoly proposition.

Capt. W. L. Roddie Answers the Last Great Summons

Captain William Lafayette Roddie probably the oldest citizen of Ada passed away last night at 9:30 o'clock, death resulting from an attack of influenza followed by a severe case of pneumonia. The aged man made a desperate struggle for life, but his weakened condition could not stand the strain. The funeral services were conducted from the First Methodist Church this afternoon, the church in which he has long held his membership. The services were conducted by Rev. R. C. Taylor, assisted by Dr. J. M. Gordon and Prof. A. L. Fentem.

Captain Roddie, who is known to almost every one in Ada, was born in Elizabeth Town, Tennessee, on January 15, 1840, making him 80 years old. His early life was spent near the place of his birth. When the war between the states broke out he enlisted at once. Starting in the Confederate army as a private, he rose step by step to the position of captain.

As an active school teacher, there have been few who have spent a longer life in the school room. He taught his first school in Gallatin, Tennessee, in 1866. From that time until about a year ago, he was active in the work. He came to Ada several years ago, and when the Normal was established took the position as professor of American History. On account of his advanced age, he was made an emeritus professor more than a year ago.

In 1870 Mr. Roddie married Miss Martha Frances Poston, who is still living and who has been his constant helpmate in both prosperous and lean times.

Besides the aged wife, six sons and daughters live to mourn their loss. R. M. Roddie, Ada; Hume P. Roddie, Brady, Texas; Miss Jennie Roddie, Ada; William S. Roddie, Ada; Mrs. Ruth Linstrom, Alexandria, La.; and J. A. Bostic Roddie, Dallas, Texas. There were with him when the end came.

Captain Roddie was loved and esteemed by the thousands whom he has instructed in his long life of active teaching service. Due to the fact that the teacher's is no lucrative profession, he has never amassed a great fortune of wealth, but he has amassed a fortune of love and the feeling that he has served his fellow man well.

He was active until a few months ago. By keeping his body clean and occupied at laudible undertakings, he maintained his erect manner and his physical and mental strength until his ripe age.

The schools of the city and the Normal School closed this afternoon as a tribute to the work of this teacher. At the High School, the students and faculty stood at attention while the flag was lowered to half mast, where it is to remain the rest of the day. These are tributes that are seldom paid a man, and they stand as a monument to the sacrificing labor of a lifetime of service.

Woman Files Second Petition For Divorce

Suit for divorce from her husband, Rance Jones, was filed in district court yesterday by Pearl Jones. She is represented by R. C. Roland. This is the second divorce petition filed by plaintiff, a former one having been withdrawn following a reconciliation.

Plaintiff states that she was married to defendant on March 19, 1909 and that three children, all girls, aged seven, five and three years, respectively, have been born of the marriage and are now living with plaintiff. That defendant has for several months neglected plaintiff, failing and refusing to support plaintiff and her children, and has associated with women of bad repute and been guilty of infidelity towards this plaintiff.

"That on the 9th day of February, 1920, on the Main Street of the city of Ada this defendant was found in company with a woman who has caused trouble before between plaintiff and defendant, who he was asking into the car that belonged to this plaintiff, and that when plaintiff objected, the defendant struck, beat and bruised this plaintiff."

That because of the conduct of defendant, life with him has become intolerable, and she prays for divorce, custody of her children, and such alimony as the court may think reasonable and proper.

INDIANS COMING INTO THEIR OWN

ARMY RE-ORGANIZATION PROGRAM SHOWS THAT AMERICAN INDIANS ARE ALL THEY EVER WERE

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—A proposal to organize one or more full divisions of Indian troops as a part of the re-organized army and to be known as the North American Indian division or divisions, is pending in Congress as part of the army reorganization legislation.

Many instances of exploits of personal heroism on the western front, such as won for the Red Men in France the nickname of "squirrel hunters" because of the deadly accuracy of their rifles in sniping contests with Germans, were furnished the committee as evidence of valuable man power which it is contended would be wasted if the Indians are denied a place in the army scheme.

Expertness at scouting and patrolling, particularly at night and in unknown territory; disregard for personal danger under fire, and unflinching loyalty, were among the soldierly qualities the Indian was described as possessing to an unusual degree. Specific cases are cited by Dr. Joseph Kossuth Dixon, secretary of the National American which Rodman Wamamaker of New York is founder and president. Dr. Dixon also read a letter from General Pershing giving his "heartiest approval" to a plan to enlist Indian regiments.

A majority of the more than 17,000 Indians who saw military service during the war were members

HOOVER MAY QUEER G. O. P. SAYS TAFT

By News' Special Service

DULUTH, Minn., Feb. 10.—Herbert Hoover and the league of nations are likely to exert considerable influence in the coming presidential election, former President William Howard Taft declared here today in a political discussion with a group of prominent Duluth men. Mr. Taft gave an address tonight under the auspices of the American Legion.

"Mr. Hoover has declared that he is with a party that supports the league of nations," Mr. Taft said, "and should be nominated by the democrats, and the republicans choose to make the league an issue. Mr. Hoover would poll many republican votes. I will not go so far as to say this situation would result in splitting the republican party, but it might spell defeat instead of victory for the republicans in the presidential contest."

Mr. Taft gave the impression that he did not believe the republicans will allow the league to become a vital factor in the presidential campaign.

THE SITUATION IS VIEWED WITH ALARM

Cobb Pleases Big Audience With Lecture

Mixing deep thoughtful conclusions drawn from long experience in public life with keen wit and happy blending of words, Irvin S. Cobb, America's most noted humorist, held the big crowd at the Normal last evening entranced for an hour and forty minutes. Not once during this time did a single person seem to tire as the Kentuckian related personal experiences on the war front, drew conclusions about our immigration problem and told stories of the chocolate colored citizenry of the south.

The audience, being familiar with Cobb's style, went to enjoy the evening. From the appearance on the platform of the speaker, until he took his seat he played with his audience as he willed. Using nothing of the electionary nature, being troubled with a bad throat, these did not interfere with his ability to entertain.

Cobb was in Europe during much of the war. He was with the Allies when Brussels was on the battle front. He for a time was an official recognized correspondent in the German army. During the last 12 months of the war he spent most of the time on the American fronts, suffering with the doughboys and getting their point of view.

With this experience as a background and also the experience of having lived in New York, the portal of immigrants, he has formed many distinct ideas about our duty to native Americans and is in some doubt as to our duty to the races thousands of miles away. He doubts the wisdom of trying to put the other fellow's house in order until we have put our own in order. He advises the killing of all Bolsheviks, anarchists and I. W. W. agitators and the keeping out of many foreigners. He believes it is better to kill the snake before it rears its head so high and begins to give forth its poison.

The lecture, "Made in America," is optimistic in tone, however, as the speaker believes that the American sense of humor, American love for humanity and American good common sense will pull us through the disturbance in the industrial world.

The lecturer was introduced last night by Marvin Brown of the Evening News. The managers of the Lyceum course are highly pleased with the result of last night's entertainment, and expect equal success when former President Wm. H. Taft appears here next month.

Mrs. Will Neatherly left this afternoon for Oklahoma City to join Mr. Neatherly after which she will visit with Mrs. Henry Overholster of that City.

Livestock Show Tomorrow Will Be Humdinger

Managers of the livestock show and sale to be held in Ada tomorrow are predicting today that it will be one of the biggest affairs of its kind ever held in this section of the Southwest. It has been well advertised thruout this part of the country and the interest displayed by the citizens of many counties warrant the belief that an immense crowd will be in attendance.

The sale will be held at the Gregg barn known to fame as the Ham-Ram tabernacle with that well known auctioneer, Col. J. W. Davis, officiating. He will have all necessary assistance, and the splendid stock that will be offered for sale ought to give the colonial a lot of inspiration. Whether one is a prospective buyer or not, the sight of the fancy stock offered will well repay one for the time spent in attending the show.

In view of the importance of this event and its promise to the live stock industry of Pontotoc County, and professional men of Ada to attend the show and lend all possible encouragement. The business men really ought to close their shops and store for a part of the day at least. What do you think about it?

REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION TODAY

HAS THE DISTINCTION OF BEING THE FIRST REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION IN NATION

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 11.—Four delegates at large to the Republican national convention at Chicago will be selected and the spirited contest between John Embry of Oklahoma City and Jake L. Hamon of Ardmore for the place on the national committee representing Oklahoma will be definitely decided at the Republican state convention which was scheduled to be called to order here today at 4 o'clock.

Both Embry and Hamon followers were claiming victory for their candidates throughout the morning. The credentials committee this morning decided to seat the Ewert-White delegation from Pottawatomie county and it was being celebrated by Embry's supporters as a decision in favor of their candidate.

Pottawatomie county will send a delegation of 16 instructed for Embry, and Bryan county will have six delegates instructed for the Oklahoma City man while Hamon has admittedly captured the large Creek county delegation. The Okmulgee county delegation will come with 19 of its 32 delegates instructed for Hamon.

Decisions on contests involving the rights of delegates from Johnston county seats in the convention remained to be decided by the credentials committee before the conference was called to order. The name of John Fields was prominently mentioned this forenoon for temporary chairman.

Outside of the Hamon-Embry contest interest centered upon whether the Oklahoma delegation to the Chicago convention would go instructed or uninstructed as regards presidential candidates.

Today's convention was the first republican state convention to be held in the country.

OKLAHOMA IS FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

THE CONVENTION OF WOMEN AT THE CITY HAS CONVINCED THE MAJORITY THAT THEY ARE CAPABLE

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, February 10.—Now that the State Legislature is to be called in special session, no time should be spent by any member opposing the ratification of the National amendment giving suffrage to all women of the nation on an equal basis with the men. They have shown, beyond a doubt, their ability to assume the responsibilities as well as to partake of the advantages of suffrage. There are members of the legislature who are opposed to woman suffrage, and no one should be arraigned or vilified because of their political views unless such views are antagonistic to free government, yet this ratification will be made, even without Oklahoma, though it may not be in time for the women in the states who do not have suffrage at this time to vote for president next November, and to oppose the ratification at the special session in Oklahoma, by an one, will only delay the matter and hold the session beyond the time it is necessary to hold it. Governor Robertson is calling a special session upon the advice of the Democratic Organization of the state, together with the solicitation of Sen. Robt. L. Owen, who is a candidate for President of the United States, and it is the belief that the ratification of this woman suffrage amendment, bringing in as it will hundreds of thousands of women votes throughout the nation, and especially in the south, will not only be a great incentive behind the work of those who will have charge of the movement to nominate Senator Owen for president, but if he is nominated his popularity with the women for his work in their behalf will obtain for him not only the Democratic women's vote of the nation, but will also poll for him a great many women of other political affiliations. Then, too, if this special session should not finally ratify the national amendment, the women voters of this state would see to it that members were elected to the next legislature that would vote for its ratification. With all these things to be considered, there seems to be no reason why that ratification of this amendment should not be made and made immediately upon the convening of the special session of the State Legislature.

THE EMPEROR HAD PLENTY OF LACKEYS

BERLIN, Feb. 10.—The former German Emperor William while at the German great headquarters in Charleville, France, in the world war, surrounded himself with an army of lackeys, changed his uniform several times a day and had a strong objection to any but silk socks, according to a description of his conduct there by the editor of the Charleville Journal. The editor, M. Domelier, has just published an account of the former Emperor's conduct at Charleville. He says:

"Every thing he wore was intended to attain the greatest effect. According to the example of Napoleon he slept in a simple field bed, which, however, did not stand under a tent but in wonderful villa which had every imaginable protection against airplanes.

His fear of fliers was so great that he constantly changed his sleeping place and created a regular steel safe in which to sleep. In April, 1915 five bombs fell in the neighborhood of the imperial villa, and at another time the court train was attacked, the Kaiser's chief engineer, a cook and several court officials were killed. In the garden of the Kaiser's villa there was an electrically-lighted dugout with a capacity of 30 men.

Unlike his sons, the Kaiser's meals were simple. His lunch consisted of some sort of cold meat, and a desert. Only on his birthday was there a better meal, such as caviar and pate de foies gras, roast, rice, fruits, omelette, and choice wine. He usually drank beer or a light Moselle wine.

"By tearing down some of the walls in the villa, the Kaiser had a wonderful bathroom constructed. Three of the big trees in the neighborhood he chopped down himself and distributed the wood to the poor families of Charleville. The inhabitants showed no appreciation for his kindness. They asserted that he was trying to gain their sympathies with out paying a penny. The women expelled from Lill's for compulsory work he permitted to do agricultural work."

PONTOTOC COUNTY SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

By A. FLOYD, County Superintendent

Pecan Grove school enrollment is now increasing every day and the interest and enthusiasm shown by the patrons and pupils is pleasing to the teachers.

We have organized a literary society which met for the first time last week, and was generally pronounced a success. We were more than pleased to see the house fill to its utmost capacity. We have organized a girl's basketball team and are now expecting to play some match games with some of our neighboring schools. The basketball equipment for our team was purchased with a part of the proceeds of a box supper, we have some funds yet on hand, and are purchasing needed supplies for our school room.

During the past two weeks we have been favored by some enjoyable visits by, Supt. A. Floyd, Mrs. A. E. Newton, who is a patron of our district, Mr. Raymond Robbins and Mr. Henry Dew, who are students of E. C. S. N. at Ada.

We believe our school is growing better each day, for we begin to hear school talk that sounds good.

Hall's Hill school is being beautified with curtains and pictures of some of our famous men. These were bought with the proceeds of a pie supper, which amounted to $19.00, given by Miss Savana Keithley.

Steedman school began its second month with an enrollment of one-hundred pupils all of whom seem to be interested in their studies and are bent on making good, though some are greatly hampered by lack of books.

We are preparing for a Valentine Box Social with program, Friday night. The proceeds to be used in purchasing equipments needed to standardize the school. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The smaller pupils are very much elated over the purchase of a dozen new desks that the board has put up for them.

The first game of girls basketball, to be played on Stonewall Court, was played Monday morning between the girls of Agricultural College at Tishomingo and the Stonewall girls.

The game was fast and exciting throughout. Stonewall won by a score of 23 to 18.

Chapel opened Monday morning with a few songs and some "yells" given by the entire school. Mr. Frost gave a lecture on "Conquer we must". After which a "pep" meeting was held, under the direction of "yell leaders" Arthur Harrison, Dale Perry and Frank Van Eaton.

Last Wednesday night a pie supper was given to raise money to put a sink in the domestic science room. Two pies were given, one for the prettiest girls and the other to the ugliest boy. Mabel Nix and Tandy Walker were the winners. The total amount made on the pies was $82.00.

On my arrival at the Oakman school I found 85 pupils working diligently. While they were crowded for room, there was one thing very noticeable, and that was the orderly way the children were at work and the sanitary conditions of the school rooms. It was as near perfect as could be under the conditions which prevail for lack of room. This the citizens hope to correct by a new building in the near future. One other feature I wish to note was the attendance of the large boys and girls. There were nine in the 8th grade, and would it not pay, even in dollars and cents, to establish a high school for those boys off to school even though they and girls rather than to send them were able and will to do so? Misses Nova and Lula McKinney are the teachers of this school.

My next school was Denny. This is where Miss Martha Jane Derrick teaches. While the conditions and interest are much improved over last year, the teacher does not have the full and hearty cooperation from the patrons she should have.

Feels Like a Real Fellow

"After nine years of stomach suffering, colic attacks and bloating, I feel like a living person again. Four doses of May's Wonderful Remedy have entirely restored me. I have met a great many people who, I am sure, need this medicine." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Gwin & Mays Drug Co., and druggists everywhere, adv.

STALL'S STUDIO

However, this district can not hope to give the best advantages to its children, until it is joined either to Oakman or Francis.

On Monday night I met with the "Francis' Patrons Auxiliary Club." This was a splendid meeting and was largely attended by the patrons and friends of the Francis school. They have fine school interest and spirit and the work of such clubs are builders of good schools. So Francis need not fear the quality of her school so long as it has such citizenship. After the general program and routine of business, I addressed the club on "The general work of the schools of Pontotoc County."

In the Tyrola school they have two teachers, Mrs. Rice and Miss Anderson. Last year they employed one teacher. Hence the people are very much interested in the school as it is so much better than when they were trying to run the school with one teacher. They had an enrollment of 70 with an attendance of 60 and the work that is being done by the teachers is first class. The order and sanitation were good.

From here I went to New Bethel. Mr. Selph is principal and is assisted by Miss Ola Sales and Miss Matie Perry. This is one of the best equipped schools in the county. The work of the teachers and the cooperation of patrons show their appreciation of the same. They are doing one year of high school work. This is one of the schools visited by Mr. Howell, High School Inspector and he assured them that the school would be put on the accredited list.

Other schools visited which I have not time to write up fully are Union Hill, Bebee, Worstell, Walnut Grove and Egypt. Each school had a large attendance and the work was especially good in three of these schools. While the others were only fair. Where the work was good sanitation and civic pride prevailed. This is conducive of good school work and good health.

Two of these schools, Egypt and Bebee, have solved the problem of board for the teachers. They have erected teacherages on the school campus.

In conclusion, I wish to emphasize to the entire teaching force of this county the importance of ventilation and cleanliness as well as sunshine and exercise. The lessons of sanitation should be deeply implanted in the life of every child by the practical habit of the teachers and the care of the school room. This is doubly important now, as we have so much "flu" and the condition of our school room has much to do with the spread of such diseases.

There will be three prizes given in Pontotoc County for the best essays on "What are the benefits of an enlistment in the U. S. Army," by the citizens of Ada. The prizes are as follows:

- First prize $15.00
- Second prize $10.00
- Third prize $7.50

This is open to any pupils attending school in the county regardless of age or grade. These essays must be in the county superintendent's office not later than Feb. 23, and they will be judged by a committee selected from the Normal Faculty.

TROUBLES FROM MY AGE

Mrs. Baney tells how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her Through the Change of Middle Life.

Rochester, Ind.—"My troubles were from my age and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me wonderfully. I took doctor's medicine and other patent medicine but the Vegetable Compound has helped my nerves more than anything I have ever taken. I am thankful to the one who recommended it to me and will surely do my part in telling others what the medicine has done for me."
—MRS. LETTIE BANNEY, 468 East 9th St., Rochester, Indiana.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and dizziness should be heeded by middle-aged women and let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis as it did Mrs. Baney.

Have you a "twin soul"? It's nothing like an athletic heart of the housemaid's knee, but it frequently causes even more trouble. Billie Burke is afflicted with one in her "Sadie Love", which will open at the Liberty Theatre on Today. It takes the form of an old sweetheart who shows up about five minutes after she has been pronounced the wife of Count Luigi Pallavicini, a handsome Italian. Forthwith Billie imagines herself in love with her old flame, though he has grown fat and unlovely since their amorous affair. She plans an elopement with him, but his wife and an excitable French friend of the Italian husband foil the little scheme and offer some complications on their own account. It is a most laughable and delightful

If ever men are "Tom" and "Bill" to each other, it's when good pipes are a-going. If ever good pipes go their best, 'tis when Velvet's in the bowl.

For Velvet is a mighty friendly smoke. Kentucky Burley is the leaf that Nature made for pipes. Wholesome and hearty, honest as the day. And Velvet is that same good Burley leaf, brought to mellow middle age.

For eight long seasons Velvet "meditates" in wooden hogsheads, throwing off the rawness of "young" tobacco—truly "ageing in the wood." Out Velvet comes—cool, calm and generous—the tobacco Nature made good, kept good and made better.

Velvet's sweetness is the sweetness of good tobacco, not "put on" like "frosting" on a cake. Its mildness comes from natural ageing, not from having the life baked out. Its fragrance is true tobacco fragrance, not a perfume. And Velvet makes an A Number One cigarette. Roll one.

As good old Velvet Joe says:

"Fill yo' heart with friendly thoughts,
Yo' mouth with friendly smoke—
An' let the old world wag."

NOTABLES OF THE SPORTING WORLD MEET ON MEXICAN SOIL

These six men, whose names are famous in the sporting world, met recently while attending the races at Tia Juana, Mexico, and were photographed at the track. Oldfield is one of the best known of American auto racers. Kearns is winning fame and fortune as the manager of Jack Dempsey. Dempsey is America's last word in heavyweights at the present moment, and just now is acting in the movies. Coffroth is promoting races and big bouts in Tia Juana.

Corbett is America's most popular ex-heavyweight champion. Frank Chance is still remembered as manager of the champion Cubs in 1906, 1907 and 1908. Tia Juana is just below the international boundary of Lower California.

BONES OF CORTEZ ARE NOW LOCATED

GOLDEN KEY IN CATHOLIC CUSTODY REVEALS THE FACTS CONCERNING LONG LOST SECRET

By the Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 10.—After almost one hundred years of consistent search it now appears that the remains of Hernando Cortez, Spanish conqueror of Mexico, have been definitely located in the "Temple of Jesus", one of the many Catholic churches in Mexico City. A gold key which can unlock the marble vault containing the dust of "The Conquistador" and the funeral garments in which he was buried, is said to be in possession of Senora Borneque de la Barra, a resident of Paris, and efforts are being made to obtain it. The key comes to Senora Borneque as a heritage.

Newspapers here have agreed in this connection to give absolute credence to the testimony of a direct descendant of the keeper of the "Hospital of Jesus," an annex to the temple of the same name. He claims to have documentary evidence that in 1823, when patriotic zealots planned to take forcible possession of Cortez's remains, they were saved from violation and were later returned to their original resting place beneath the main altar of the temple. It was the sequestration in 1823 that caused students to conduct a search for the hiding place, many asserting it was in Old Spain and others in Naples, Italy.

The restlessness which drove Hernando Cortez, Spanish courier to New Spain and culminated in the conquest of Mexico from the Aztecs in 1521, after one of the most brilliant campaigns in all history, apparently continued after his death near Seville, but in 1562, in accordance with his will and by order of his son, the remains were taken to Mexico, not to the Mexico City suburb of Coyoacan, which had been Cortez's headquarters during the memorable siege of Mexico City, but to the monastery of St. Francis in Tezcuco, another village near the Mexican capital.

The remains were moved again in 1629, this time to the church of St. Francis in Mexico City. The transfer was accompanied by the most lavish religious pomp and ceremony ever recorded in the country. In 1794 the remains were again given a new resting place, an institution founded and endowed by Cortez. There was no crowd of demonstrators in 1823 wished to scatter the remains as a token of their independence when a secret removal was made until the flame of the revolution died down.

It is in this hospital, or church as it is now, that the historic crystal coffin secured by bars and plates of silver and containing the dust of Cortez wrapped in linen embroidered with gold, was deposited and now is believed to await the return to Mexico of the golden key with which its hiding place may be unlocked.

SIMPLE FROCK OF METAL CLOTH FOR FEBRUARY DANCES

Very effective is the simplicity of this dance frock which will be appropriate for any of the festivities which usually crowd into the month of February. This year there will be added to the Valentine and Martha Washington parties the Leap Year dances. Old gold colored metal cloth is simply draped to form the skirt and the bodice is of the surplice type. A bit of gold lace forms the underskirt and a small bunch of bright purple grapes are the only evidence of trimming.

CHILE LIKES THE GREASERS BETTER THAN AMERICANS

By the Associated Press

SANTIAGO, Chile, Feb. 10.—Public opinion in Chile as far as is expressed by leading newspapers of Santiago was inclined to favor Mexico in the incident resulting from the demand of the United States for the release of the American Consul, William O. Jenkins, who was arrested at Puebla after having been kidnapped by Mexican bandits.

The two principal papers here, El Mercurio and El Diario Ilustrado, treated the question from the point of view of international law based upon facts as reported by cable and sent by the Mexican government to Mexican legations all over South America. Both papers expressed the opinion that Mexico had a right to judge Mr. Jenkins, unless a miscarriage of justice were approved and that the United States had no right to interfere.

The Mexican question was widely discussed in Chile. It had a special interest for South America because of its bearing upon the attitude of the United States toward one of the Spanish American republics.

Americans here feel that Washington should keep South American opinion officially informed concerning the relations of the United States with Mexico. They say that the development of trade between North and South America depends more upon friendly sentiments than is generally known, and that other manufacturing countries realize this and are ready to take advantage of every opening the United States may give them.

Census Takers Missed Ahloso Is Being Rumored

That the census enumerators overlooked a strip of Pontotoc County three miles long and one-half mile wide, is the report reaching the Evening News office. This strip included the village of Ahloso. It is reported that the people left out of the census enumeration did not know whom to take the matter up with and one of the populous rural districts of the county thus escaped enumeration. This report has not been confirmed and may be nothing but an idle rumor.

"MAKE ME A BOY AGAIN"

Every time we see a bunch of kiddies on their way to or school, we feel like kicking off about thirty of the years we have accumulated and lining up once more with the gang of from school, we feel like kicking off about thirty years we old Mother Nature ever turned loose on society is the small boy, and none of us will ever forget the days of old, when tireless and turbulent we roamed the sunburnt hills and grassy meadows. As Ben Riley of El Reno would say: "Them was the days."

Today there is not a house left standing in the old village where in the olden time we reigned as the acknowledged nuisance of the village school. But thirty odd years ago there were several dozen houses on the old red hills and hardly one of these was a large weeping willow, a half century old. One day, while several of us ragamuffins were playing about this old tree, an old negress told us that if we would bury a wreath formed of the willow's twigs, some member of the family would certainly die forthwith. We were willing to show our faith by our works and unanimously tried the experiment.

The greatest grief of our boyhood was that we were entirely devoid of warts. On occasions when the other lads were exhibiting choice collections of warts, we felt that we were entirely without standing in the community. We felt the humiliation keenly, and would retire to a quiet place and grieve over what was to us the greatest sorrow of childhood. We consulted all the "conjure men" in the negro section and faithfully followed every suggestion guaranteed to develop warts on a wartless anatomy, but all was vanity and vexation of spirit. We simply did not have the ammunition to develop warts.

But along about our seventh summer we were made hilariously happy by the appearance of an unusually large boil on our right shin. It was conceded to be the biggest boil in the entire community. Boys gathered in for miles around to take a look, and it was a joy forever to see the lads turn green with envy as we slowly and ostentatiously and somewhat painfully rolled back our trouser leg and displayed the pride of the village. Warts didn't count when such a boil was placed on exhibition.

But alas! too soon, we learned the fall that awaits a haughty spirit. One day as we were swinging a long trace chain wildly about in sinuous circles above our unsuspecting head, that chain took a decided change for the worse and emphatically wrapped itself about our leg. Forthwith there was produced the wildest cake walk ever done in a Mississippi peach orchard. And when the dust finally settled down our boil was mostly a thing of the past. It was spoiled utterly.

We have never experienced a deeper or more lasting grief than that. It was in vain that our old black mammy tried to console us by telling us that if we would not cry and would be a good boy, we would soon have "a whole passel of the biggest boils." We knew there was an aching void this world could never fill. And for many weeks thereafter we refused all consolation and wept the glory that had departed from our right shin bone.

The good old days of irresponsible boyhood will never come back to us. But when we see the streets lined with lads free of all care and almost of all morals, we long for the good old days. And when we hear some dyspeptic pessimist berating the lads whose thoughtless pranks have turned order into chaos, we think of the days when we too were a boy and become at once their champion.

Tennessee is talking of making Senator Jno. K. Shields of that state her favorite son and instructing her delegates to the national convention to vote for him. Don't laugh, every state is entitled to at least one favorite son.

A political convention may be tempted to do a great many things, but when one makes a choice between Democratic candidates in a Democratic primary it is doing wrong. Such matters are for primaries to decide.

Federal and state appointees played the game at Muskogee in world series form. Not an error is charged up to the bread-and-butter brigade. Machine politics never gave a more brilliant exhibition.

The box score indicates that the Tulsa World was more successful in electing Harrel in the Fifth District than in beating Jake Hamon in Tulsa County.

PERSHING HITS REDS IN OKLAHOMA CITY

News Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 10.—Agitators who continue to work against the government should be deported and sent back to the country from which they came, General John J. Pershing said at noon at the Chamber of Commerce luncheon during a short talk in which he paid tribute to the American legion as the greatest steady influence in the country.

"Great uneducated masses of the country are willing to listen to propaganda of agitators and the masses should be given Americanization propaganda," he said. Children should all be taught the English language and be required to study the constitution.

The noted general reminisced for a bit and spoke about the time he was stationed here, "When Oklahoma City was a mere village," he said.

"I don't need a key to the city," he laughed, as he was presented with a solid gold key by Mayor Walton. "I have carried a pass key to the city for ten years."

Following the presentation May-Robertson who made a brief address of welcome.

"You have performed a wonderful task in Europe and now there is a great task at home," the governor said. "Democracy must be made safe for the world. You have endeared yourself to the public by not pushing yourself forward at a time when a whole country is paying tribute to you."

"Men from Oklahoma made splendid soldiers," Pershing said. "The patriotism of the people at home carried the great armies forward on the battle fields of France. The presence of women had more to do with the morale and the morality of the army than any other factor. And the morality of the army is unequalled by any army in the world's history."

"Soldiers have learned to know what it means to serve. As a result the American legion creed contains as its principles everything worth while as an American citizen. The Legion is not partisan. It is an organization which every true American can and should support. Every eligible man and woman should join. Members of the legion are more impressed by obligations than by their rights. If their attitude was adopted by all citizens, there would be less lawlessness and fewer disorders."

"I accept the recognition given me, not for myself but in the name of the men who represented those who give this recognition, on the battle fields."

Normal Closed Today
East Central Normal is closed today in honor to the memory of Captain Roddie. For ten years Captain Roddie was a highly respected member of the normal faculty, being an instructor in the department of history. At his own request he was retired at the beginning of the present school year.

Prof. Fentem also ordered that the High School be closed at noon in order that those who cared to attend the funeral this afternoon would have the chance to do so.

Bring in that picture and let me frame it for you.—C. A. Cummins.

Ada Playhouses

At The Liberty
The Virginia Beauties are a great hit and are pleasing everyone at this playhouse this week. They are headed by a big beauty chorus of eight girls and the negro comedian is far above the average.

The Harmony Quartet is all that its name signifies, for it certainly can make the harmony without any accompaniment and has made a decided hit.

But the screen offers something unusual today in showing Billie Burke, one of the most famous stars of the screen and stage. She appears today in a Paramount-Artcraft Picture, called "Sadie Love," wherein Billie Burke is a vivacious bride who deserts her husband for "a fat Romeo." It is one of those amusing and highly entertaining features which only Billie Burke knows how to play without reaching the extreme.

Special music features during the pictures for both matinee and night.

At The American
William Fox presents today that noted male star actor, Albert Ray, with beautiful blond Elinor Fair in "Be a Little Sport." Those who have seen these two stars act together, separately or individually, will know what to expect, and when they come will not be disappointed. Their picture today features several attempts of Cupid to gain the "big" battle over a great number of disappointments, but in the end, Cupid leads with hearts as trump.

OIL LAND LEASING BILL IS COMPLETED

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Enactment of the oil land leasing bill was completed today with the adoption of the conference report by the senate. The bill now goes to the president.

The senate action terminated a ten year fight. A bill similar to the present one was agreed upon at the last session but the senate failed to adopt the conference report in the rush of legislation in the closing hours.

The bill provided for the leasing and development of government owned oil, coal, gas, phosphate, sodium and oil lands by private enterprise and affects approximately 75,000,000 acres of public domain principally in western states.

Big Live Stock Sale to be held Thursday Noon

The banks of Ada have agreed with Col. J. W. Davis to have their executives on the ground of the Pontotoc County Improved Breeders Association tomorrow afternoon in order that they can take care of any loans necessary for those who want to buy some of the fine registered livestock for sale. Many of the stores will also have representatives on the ground, and Col. Davis urges every one to send at least one representative.

Stock is already under the large shed, some of the finest that has ever come to Ada. Cattle and hogs predominate.

The sale will start about noon Thursday. It will be held under the big shed in Bud Gregg's mule barn. Inquiries have been received from a dozen states and practically every county in the state. Pontotoc County has already won an enviable reputation as a livestock center, and the sale will help advertise this fact to the world even stronger.

Every business man in Ada will find it advantageous to go to this show and sale.

New Cases of Influenza.
Among the cases of influenza in Ada, the following cases were reported to the Evening News today. Mrs. Mary Lee, 415 East Seventh street; the Gillespie family on 511 North Mississippi avenue; W. D. Frank, Local Architect; Abbie Huber, daughter of John Huber; Mrs. Robert Weesner of the Collonade.

Prayer Meeting—Christian Church
Prayer meeting will be conducted this evening at the Christian Church beginning at seven o'clock. Those present will study the sixth chapter of Romans. This is one of the great chapters of the Bible. It continues the discussion of sin and redemption. It has some interesting things to say about baptism, as well as other things connected with salvation. Those coming should come on time, so we can have the full hour for study, and get through in time for choir practice, which is to begin at eight o'clock. There ought to be a large number studying this wonderful book.

Roff High Seeking Championship and Issues Challenge

ROFF, Okla., Feb. 10.—(Special) Last Saturday night the Roff High School boys basketball team defeated the Holdenville High by a score of 73 to 29. They have won 3 other games here of late by the following score: Seminole 3, R. H. S. 34; Francis 18, R. H. S. 66; Tishomingo High 26, and R. H. S. 37. The following men compose the squad: George Washington, Antie Watson, Walter Berry, Floyd Dorsey, Edgar Dixon, Manuel King, Vennle Jeffress, Leon Cottle, Max Allen, Frank Givens, Percy George and Forrest McCracken. It is believed that coaches and officials in the tournaments will consider Antie Watson, Walter Berry, George Washington and Floyd Dorsey for the all state team. The Roff High School is out for the state championship and challenges any team in the state for a game. The team is coached by Superintendent E. O. Davis.

Max Levin Arrested
MUNICH, Feb. 10. (Special)—Max Levin, the Bolshevik-Spartacus chieftain in Munich during the short rule there, is now sought on a charge of mass murder. He managed to escape to Austria, and negotiations are pending for his extradition.

Oscar Seagle and Irvin S. Cobb did very well, evidently their very best, and they seem to have made a hit—but Ada's real treat this week comes Thursday and Friday evenings when East Central mixes it with Central of Edmond on the local basketball court. Always a great game when these two teams meet. And the admission is only 35 cents.

NEW YORK IS SLOW

New York Herald: Our temporary arch of triumph in Fifth Madison Square is almost razed. The pacifists and furtive pro-Germans, who hold that whatever memorial of the great war is put up in this city should not lay stress on the fact that it is in celebration of victory, are busy and ready to continue their propaganda indefinitely.

More than a year has passed and this huge community, which contributed regiment after regiment to General Pershing's army, thousands of men to the fleet and led in financing the operations of the allies, and which has extended welcomes to the home-coming troops worthy of the nation's metropolis, is still in the dark as to what is going to be done about a memorial.

Those who have the matter in hand in New York are planning for competitions and exhibitions of tentative plans, while anonymous amateur critics scold and art bodies indulge in the sort of politics that is inspired by professional jealousies and personal animosities.

On the other hand, there are those who are opposed to any monument to our soldiers, sailors and marines. These good utilitarian souls want something "useful," no arch—such as Napoleon started to the glory of France—for them. They would prefer a colossal shower bath or swimming pool to anything that would appeal to the imagination.

In the meantime that vigorous youngster, the state of Oklahoma, is showing us that the way to do a thing is to do it. Plans provided for by the last general assembly have been worked out by Paul W. Bartlett, co-operating with local architects, for a good arch across Lincoln boulevard in the state capitol grounds at Oklahoma City. This will form the key to the fine park designed by the landscape gardener, George Kessler, now being laid out.

Nor will there be anything parochial or provincial about the structure. As a tribute to the allies of the United States—millions of those sons sleep with the American dead under the misty waters of the North Sea and from the Channel to the Piave river—the sculptors of France, Great Britain, and Italy are to be asked to co-operate with those of this country in producing something which shall be significant not only of valor but of our friendships formed in the fight for a great cause which brought enduring glory to all.

More power to Oklahoma. Her spirit after victory is as impressive as was the physique of the giants we admired so when they passed through on their way to the far flung battle line, where they made a record that ranks with the best. There is no longer any point in the old jest of envious neighbors that the state was famous only for "oil, Al Jennings and Henry Starr."

Now let New York try to catch up with the lively western sister.

ANOTHER SIGN OF THE TIMES.

The recent Republican precinct meeting in this fourth congressional district furnished a political portent that will be interesting to those engaged in reading the signs of the time. On the face of the returns Jake L. Hamon has won a decisive victory over the invincible Jas J. McGraw. We say "on the face of the returns", for it is a fact more or less well known that appeals are sometimes taken from the returns and the returns are not final.

The interesting feature of the contest is that Hamon's lieutenants made it a clean cut fight on the Sinn Feinn. They charged that McGraw is a Sinn Feinner, or words to that effect, and the circulation of that charge among the voters played hari kari with the political fortunes of the man from Ponca City. That was the only issue presented, the contest in the precincts was fought out on that issue, and the practical unanimity of the voters in supporting Hamon would indicate that the Sinn Feinn is not so popular in this fourth congressional district as it apparently is in the congress of the United States.

We are not discussing the charge that McGraw is a Catholic. We are simply viewing with interest the effect upon his candidacy that charge had when raised and circulated in the district. That it is a most effective charge to make against a candidate is shown by the returns. It seems to have converted an easy winner into a most disastrous loser at a time when practically every politician in the district had agreed that McGraw was invincible.

In this connection it is interesting to recall the recent appeal of a prominent candidate that the Democratic party in order to win must play to the Irish vote. In view of the close connection of the Irish vote and the Catholic vote and in view of what has just happened to J. J. McGraw, one is tempted to wonder whether the Irish vote is an asset or a liability. Thus the muddy streams of politics are still further muddled.

It is announced that the new ward school building on South Mississippi in Ada will be ready for occupancy within a few weeks—possibly by the first of next month. It is also announced that the number of new pupils in the city schools is sufficient to fill the new building to overflowing. It is probable that the additional school room will not be sufficient to accommodate the additional enrollment of the past few months. Instead of getting relief from crowded conditions by opening a new building it seems that the city simply acquires an additional crowded building. Thus the problem of overcrowded rooms that has faced the school board remains a problem and a very live problem. Other arrangements will have to be made, and the next move of the school board will be watched with interest.

A reader and well wisher of the Evening News suggests that the former political misfortunes of Mr. Bryan were not due to any poor judgment on his part or to his advocacy of unpopular principles, but are altogether attributable to his always running in the wrong time of the moon. Our well wisher informs us that political currents are governed by the moon just as that burnt out body governs the tides of the sea, the yield of potatoes, the character of soap, the height of cockle burrs, and the longevity of clapboards. He declares that Mr. Bryan will be a candidate for president in this year of grace, and that if the moon is just right, he will "mop up on them Wall Street fellers."

This daily story about the round-up of the Reds will remind old cowmen what they did with cattle in the early days when they rounded them up on the plains.

NEWEST IDEAS FOR WINTER SPORT TOGS

The winter wardrobe must surely have an outfit like this if it would boast of the newest things in sports clothes. The suede cloth coat with a chamois lining and opossum collar is one of the first essentials. Then comes the plaid woolen skirt which is pleated, the checked or striped woolen hose, the brown calf oxfords, woolen-lined gloves, and a fur hat or toque. A veil is added to protect the face from the cutting winds and milady is all ready for a hike, a skating party or a motor ride.

Glass Casket Co. Holds National Meeting in Ada

The leading officials of the glass casket companies of America have just closed their annual meeting at Ada. While here it was decided that future development in their line of activity shall be done from Ada under the immediate supervision of C. V. Gowing of the American Glass Casket Company. This action makes Ada the capital of the United States so far as the glass casket industry is concerned.

Those attending the meeting at Ada were F. H. Rogers of Washington, D. C., of the Crystal Glass Casket Co.; A. L. Tapley of Minneapolis, Minn., of the Northern Glass Casket Company; J. W. DeCamp of Santa Monica, Calif., of the Pacific Glass Casket Company; J. P. Miller and H. A. Aldridge of Muskogee, of the Midwest Glass Casket Company; G. NEW DINNER GOWN OF NOVEL DESIGN

This very unusual dinner gown of black satin has a certain dignity and charm along with a smart air which makes it particularly suitable for the young matron. Black satin forms the skirt and blouse and both are heavily embroidered in vivid blue and gold shades. Blue tulle is gathered and fastened at the hips and let fall to form a short train.

HOLY NAME SOCIETIES TRY TO STOP ANARCHY

By the Associated Press
PITTSBURGH, Jan. 5.—One hundred and forty-five Holy Name societies of the Roman Catholic church in the Pittsburgh district have launched a campaign to stop the spread of bolshevism among wage earners and to further Americanization. Literature intended to establish closer relations between capital and labor is being distributed by the organization.
Rev. Claude Geary, dominican monk and a leader in the campaign, declared Bolshevism and Socialism can be handled but that problems confronted by capital and labor must be definitely settled to bring peace to the world.

of the 90th Division, the Texas and Oklahoma National Army Division, the 36th Division, National Guardsmen from the same two states, and the 165th Infantry, or old 69th New York, which received heavy Indian replacements to fill the gaps produced in its ranks by fighting on the Marne. But the Redskins served in many other units and in practically all services.

Dr. Dixon declared that after visiting numerous camps and hospitals, all "officers interviewed, from the commanding officer to the corporal or petty officer, who have had Indians under this command, with one accord, render universal and enthusiastic commendation of the brilliance, the stability, the amenability to discipline, the heroism and valor of the Indian as a fighting force in our American army and Navy."

Major Tom Reilly, who commanded the 3rd Battalion of the 165th Infantry, was quoted as saying that the Indians were "the best and safest replacements he had at any time."

"They were expert in rifle fighting, game, strong, brave, resolute," Major Reilly said. "They were superior in scouting and patrol work. They were unexcelled in every phase of every fight."

"I have no hesitancy in recommending any one of my Indians for a first sergeantcy, or even a captaincy. I had replacements on eight different occasions, so thorough was the decimation of my ranks, and these Indians were unqualifiedly the very best replacements sent me. Many of them were killed or wounded, for they always sought the dangerous places. I advocate the segregation of Indian troops, for I noted that when they were sent out as a distinct Indian force they did their best work."

An instance of how the Choctaw dialect of men under the command of Lieutenant Colonel William J. Morrissey, of the 142nd Infantry, proved of value in dodging the German "listening-in" system was related by Dr. Dixon. In October 1918, preceding the armistice, when the 142nd Infantry was in front of St. Etienne, on the Champagne front, the Germans detected American troop movements by tapping wires. To avoid this Colonel Morrissey organized a signal square of Choctaws to transmit the messages in their original dialect. "This barbed wire conversation," Dr. Dixon said, "was a barrage that nonplussed the Germans."

In working the "code," it was found that there were no words in the Choctaw tongue for many military technical expressions, and it was necessary to make up a table of substitutes, such as "one grain corn" for "first battalion" and "arrows" for "ammunition."

Dr. Dixon's plan proposes the establishment of permanent regimental or battalion headquarters on or near reservations for the purpose of preparing Indian youths for a military career and duties or citizenship, and a higher school, to be known as the Indian West Point, for instructing Indians in the duties of non-commissioned officers. The plan would allow Indian non-commissioned officers to enter regular officers' schools.

Other sections of the measure would declare all Indians of one-eighth or more blood, who shall have reached the age of 21 years, or who shall have taken the prescribed oath of a regular soldier of the United States, to be full citizens of the United States. Subject to a reading and writing test, after 1929 all Indian graduates of the reservation would be declared full citizens on reaching 21 years of age.

Testifying before the House committee, Dr. Dixon charged that the commissioner of Indian affairs does not believe in Indian citizenship, and that he prohibited the delivery of testimony before the House Military Committee in 1917, when Dr. Dixon argued for the recruiting of ten or more regiments of Indian cavalry for use in the war. Under a ruling by the Attorney General, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs was held to have the same power of regulation over the mail of Indians as the warden of a penitentiary in preventing the delivery of mail to convicts.

"I ask you to note," Dr. Dixon said, "that the Indian, in the majority of cases a ward of the government, was treated as a convict but still was considered worthy of being drafted."

The Secretary of War opposed the organization of the Indian regiments in 1917 on the ground that he did not favor segregation of troops according to race.

LADY ASTOR TO MAKE HER MAIDEN ADDRESS

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The drink question was briefly discussed in both houses of parliament yesterday. Earl Curzon told the house of Lords that the bill on this subject to be introduced would contain provisions for shorter hours of sale. The experiment of state management certainly would not be dropped, he said. The liquor question will be debated in the House of Commons during the present week when, according to announcements representative Lady Astor will speak on the topic in which she is much interested and upon which she has addressed several meetings. It will not only be her ladyship's maiden speech in the house but the first time that a woman has been heard in parliament.

F. A. FORD, GARAGE MAN RETURNS FROM FLORIDA

F. A. Ford, proprietor of the garage and machine shop on N. Broadway of the same name, has just returned from a thirty day trip to Miami and Key West, Florida. Mr. Ford reports the sun as shining every day in that balmy climate.

Such vegetables and fruits as beans, peas, and strawberries are very bountiful there now. The orange trees are so heavy laden that their branches need propping to keep from bending to the ground and breaking.

Mr. Ford reports a fine time during his trip, with the exception of the time he was ill with the flu. But he says he was very glad to get back home, for after all, "there is no place like home."

AMERICAN SHOES IN BIG DEMAND OVER IN EUROPE

LONDON Feb. 10.—There is a very extensive market in Europe for American shoes, particularly on the continent, according to the American Chamber of Commerce in London.

The Chamber has been advised by investigators in that line of business, that American manufacturers can make large sales in these countries provided they make up the shoes, according to European styles. Although there is some talk to the contrary, the Continental European public in general does not care for the American and English style of narrow toes and long vamp shoes. On the other hand, the American conservative mode is said to be excellent sellers.

The difficulties with regard to exchange and transportation are to be considered, but are not a real obstacle.

The sales policy recommended to American manufacturers is to place an agent in each country or group of countries that could be covered by a single agent. Emphasis is laid on the need for steady supplies and a definite amount of stock should be required to be carried at all times, this stock to be selected by the agent. Payment could be made by letters of credit and the agent should be given two or three months or longer to pay for the goods, thus permitting him to select the most advantageous date of payment with regard to the rate of exchange.

The comment is made, says the Chamber, that European traders in general have lost their confidence in the promises of American exporters, and that the only way American shoe exporters can develop a lasting market in foreign countries is to become importers of shoes into these countries either direct or indirect. In other words they must set up their own organizations which they know will carry out the service traditions of their business or else work through a properly qualified agent who will build up their reputation in that country.

The Japs Must Mean Fight the Way They Go About Preparing

By the Associated Press

TOKIO, Feb. 10.—The Japanese budget for the next fiscal year amounts to the equivalent of about $637, 972, 011. An increase equivalent to about $100, 000, 000 is asked by the army and navy.

The Minister of Finances has stated that it is highly important to strengthen the national defense in order that peace may be preserved and the mechanism of communication development. Substantial increases are also called for in the departments of education and communication.

Referring to the naval expenditure it was explained that, in the extraordinary expenditures of the navy, estimates have been included for the completion of the so-called "eight and eight squadron." (Eight dreadnoughts and eight battle cruisers). The proposed naval scheme will cost about $375, 975, 000 of which $40, 000, 000 appears in the budget for the coming year.

It is proposed to begin the construction of the following warships: Four battleships, four battle cruisers, twelve cruisers, thirty-seven destroyers, five gun-boats, twelve special ships, six mine sweepers and some submarines.

The increased expenditure will be met principally by heavier income tax which will advance over that of last year, by approximately $39, 000, 000. The tax on Sake, the Japanese national drink which is made from rice, also will be increased.

The shortage in the revenue will be made good by the temporary suspension of the redemption of the domestic national loan.

First Baptist Prayer Meeting
The regular mid-week prayer meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church tonight at 7:30. We are very anxious to have a large attendance, and hope that a large number of the members will be present.

At the conclusion of the prayer service we will administer the ordinance of baptism to a number of candidates.

Everybody is cordially invited to be present at this service.
